

Together

Words and music by Judi Jaeger

A hook and an eye, a needle and thread
A tapestry with history hung above your bed.
A notebook with words, a pencil and lead
Poetry with mystery written in your head

Your kiss, my lips, your hands, my hips
Ooooooo
My kiss, your lips, my hands, your hips.
Ooooooo

A house and its roof, the stairs to the door
Windowpanes and painted walls are shelter from the storm
The fire and the heat, your feet on the floor
Knowing you are here, I'm not alone anymore

Chorus

One can't be without the other.
Like a pair of mourning doves.
Like you and I they go together,
together in love.

Chorus
